- d. NAVMC 11622 for inventory purposes of Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar, [enclosure (6)]
- e. NAVMC 11622 partial Physical Fitness Test with partial waiver, [enclosure (16)]

4. Summary of findings:

a. During the week of 16-20 May 2022, [REDACTED] approached [REDACTED] about running a Physical Fitness Test (PFT) and wanted to know if there were any coming up. [REDACTED] informed [REDACTED] he was running one for the upcoming Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar (LLES) on Monday, 23 May 2022. The PFT started at approximately 0530, and [REDACTED] had [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] assist him in monitoring the PFT. [REDACTED] was present for the PFT on 23 May 2022, but he did not put his information on either on the two NAVMC 11622 forms present. [REDACTED] completed only the crunches portion of the PFT.

b. At approximately 1011 on the morning of 23 May 2022, [REDACTED] received a text message from [REDACTED] containing required information for NAVMC 11622 to include scores for all three events of the PFT. [REDACTED] then sent [REDACTED] another text shortly after stating, "Thanks for hooking me up, I owe you". [REDACTED] never responded to the text. Throughout the week of 23-27 May 2022, [REDACTED] continued to run LLES. During this time, [REDACTED] spoke to [REDACTED] multiple times about the PFT conducted on 23 May 2022. Between 23 May and 6 June 2022, [REDACTED] created a NAVMC 11622 form because he wanted [REDACTED] to stop asking about the PFT. The new NAVMC contained the scores [REDACTED] sent in the text message at 1011 on 23 May 2022. [REDACTED] did not submit the NAVMC in MCTIMS.

Subj: PRELIMINARY INQUIRY INTO THE FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING POSSIBLE FRAUDULENT ENTRIES OF TRAINING EVENTS

c. On 6 June 2022, [REDACTED] sought the advice of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told Sgt [REDACTED] when he was assigned to his current billet, he was briefed by [REDACTED] to report any suspicious activity from [REDACTED] because he attempted to submit fraudulent training scores in the past. Specifically, a fraudulent PFT NAVMC 11622 form for another Marine, [REDACTED]. Because of this information [REDACTED] recommended [REDACTED] inform [REDACTED] of the situation. Once informed of the situation, [REDACTED]

d. On 8 June 2022, [REDACTED] a text asking "have you ran that PFT". During the course of the Preliminary Inquiry, [REDACTED] stated he intended to run a partial PFT on 23 May 2022.

e. On 9 June 2022, [REDACTED] received a partial PFT waiver from 9th ESB medical, from Independent Duty Corpsman, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] previously discussed his medical conditions with 9th ESB [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] offered [REDACTED] a light duty chit on 27 May 2022 but [REDACTED] denied it.

f. On 13 June 2022, [REDACTED] completed a partial PFT, completing the pull-ups and crunches events.

5. Recommendation: In the case of [REDACTED] attempts to fraudulently submit training events, the Investigating Officer found sufficient evidence to adjudicate; no further investigation required. [REDACTED] handled the previous attempt when he was [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is in violation of Article 80 (attempts)-attempting to falsely submit a PFT; Article 82 (solicitation)-solicitation of another Marine to violate Article 107 (making false official statements); and Article 92 (failure to obey order or directive)-not following guidance in reference (b). Finally, I recommend [REDACTED] be removed as the Battalion Training Chief and at a minimum receive a NAVMC 118 6105 entry into Service Record Book.

Subj: SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW ICO [REDACTED]

Ref: (a) JAGMAN Section 0203

1. This is a summary of interview of [REDACTED] conducted by [REDACTED] on Wednesday, 8 June 2022.
2. [REDACTED] approached [REDACTED] during the week of 16-20 May 2022 asking about upcoming Physical Fitness Test (PFT) scheduled and if he could get his name added to the NAVMC 11622. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was asking for a hook up and did not intend to run the PFT. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] if he wanted to run one he had a Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar PFT scheduled for the morning of 23 May 2022. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] showed up the morning of Monday 23 May 2022 for the PFT, [REDACTED] did not add [REDACTED] to the NAVMC 11622 because [REDACTED] only completed crunches and did not complete any other events. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] was hovering around him during the conduct of the other events, as if he was trying to get his name and information on the NAVMC 11622. Later in the day of 23 May 2022, [REDACTED] received a text message from [REDACTED] with his information for the NAVMC, specifically, full name, EDIPI, PHA date, and scores for all three PFT events. Followed by another text message shortly after saying he appreciates the hook up and he owes him.
3. [REDACTED] states that [REDACTED] verbally asked him three to four times throughout the rest of the week 23-27 May if he ran the NAVMC. [REDACTED] states he ignored [REDACTED] because he was busy with Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar. [REDACTED] stated he eventually created a NAVMC 11622 with the information that [REDACTED] supplied, in his text message on Monday, 23 May 2022, solely for the intention of stopping [REDACTED] from asking him about adding his name to the NAVMC.
4. [REDACTED] stated that on Monday 6 June 2022, he sought the advice of [REDACTED] due to not feeling comfortable submitting a NAVMC for [REDACTED] PFT because he did not physically run one. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] said they should bring it up the chain and talk to [REDACTED] to inform him of the situation. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] briefed [REDACTED] who then decided to inform [REDACTED] then told [REDACTED] he received a text from [REDACTED] the morning of 8 June 2022 asking if he submitted the NAVMC.
5. [REDACTED] followed up with [REDACTED] on Thursday, 9 June 2022, to specifically ask if he offered the Marines, running the PFT on 23 May 2022, if they wanted to do pushups vice pull-ups. [REDACTED] stated yes because he reads directly from the PFT order. [REDACTED] then stated that [REDACTED] mentioned that morning that he wanted to run a partial PFT.

Prior to taking over as BN Training NCO I was told by [REDACTED] to notify ^{the command} ~~there~~ if I saw anything suspicious in terms of training while in the S-3. Monday, June 6, 2022, [REDACTED] approached me in the afternoon and asked if he could get my advice. We went into his office and he told me [REDACTED] asked him to run a PFT score without actually running a PFT. [REDACTED] said that he told [REDACTED] that he was administering a PFT for the Lance Corporal Seminar Course that was going on at the time and that he could run it then. [REDACTED] also told me that [REDACTED] showed up and only did crunches. He tried to have [REDACTED] fill in scores for the portions of the PFT he did not do. ~~After~~ I told [REDACTED] that this wasn't the first time [REDACTED] had done something like this and it needed to be brought up to the Command. That same evening [REDACTED] and I told the Training officer [REDACTED] about [REDACTED]. After that the three of us talked to [REDACTED] to report what [REDACTED] had done.

Subj: SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW ICO [REDACTED]

1. This is a summary of interview of [REDACTED] conducted by [REDACTED] on Thursday 9 June 2022.

2. At approximately 1345 on 9 June 2022, [REDACTED] conducted an interview as the Investigating Officer (IO) for Preliminary Inquiry into the facts and circumstances surrounding possible fraudulent entries for training events. [REDACTED] brought [REDACTED] into the vacant S-4 Officer Office to conduct a secluded interview. [REDACTED] introduced himself as the IO then proceeded to read Article 31 rights to [REDACTED] handed him the paper so he could read it. Upon completion of reading Article 31 rights, [REDACTED] stated he wanted to seek counsel. [REDACTED] informed [REDACTED] to initial the top section of Article 31 rights stating he understood his rights and do not initial the bottom section (waiver of rights). [REDACTED] initialed the top section, both parties signed the bottom, and then [REDACTED] began to freely speaking.

3. [REDACTED] asked who was behind this and [REDACTED] told him [REDACTED] began by saying this is all just miscommunication and that he coordinated running a partial with [REDACTED]. He then stated he planned a partial Physical Fitness Test (PFT) with [REDACTED] next week. [REDACTED] asked when he went on Light or Limited Duty, [REDACTED] stated today, 9 June 2022. [REDACTED] stated multiple times that it had to have been a miscommunication between him and [REDACTED] and that he coordinated running the PFT with [REDACTED] but he could not do the run. [REDACTED] stated he conducted the crunches and a Lance Corporal in Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar held his legs (but does not know who it was). He then said [REDACTED] never offered to do pushups stating that he could not do pull-ups. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] stated, "You need to declare a partial before you start the PFT". [REDACTED] said he asked about it at the end. Later in the conversation [REDACTED] mentioned the morning of the PFT that he wanted to run a partial, however he did not have a light or limited duty at that time. [REDACTED] stated that all conversations about running a partial PFT with [REDACTED] were verbal. He then mentioned he talked with the [REDACTED] while they were both deployed to Balikatan, about his medical issues, specifically he stated his bad knees and elbow. He stated that the Medical Officer was aware of his conditions and would write him up any paperwork that he needed when he gets back.

4. Further in the conversation [REDACTED] said that he was just going to run it to see where he was and that he tried to get his name on the "inventory" NAVMC 11622, however was not able to get his name on either of the two NAVMC's that morning. [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] if

[REDACTED] ever showed him a NAVMC with his name and event scores annotated on it and he stated no. He again admitted that the communication could have been better between himself and [REDACTED] and that he was trying to get his partial PFT done before his PHA was outdated (June 2, 2022).

5. [REDACTED] stated he tried to talk [REDACTED] a couple of times in the last two weeks about running a partial PFT and [REDACTED] told him he would have to re-run the events because he could not use the crunches from Monday 23 May 2022. [REDACTED] was adamant that he tried to communicate with [REDACTED] to run a partial PFT; however, it was not until the morning of Thursday, 9 June 2022 that [REDACTED] told him he would need to re-run all events. [REDACTED] stated that he then went to [REDACTED] and scheduled a partial PFT for the following week.

[REDACTED]

Ref: (a) JAGMAN Section 0203

1. This is a summary of interview of [REDACTED] conducted by [REDACTED] on Monday, 13 June 2022.

2. [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] if she recently went to Lance Corporal Leadership Ethics Seminar (LLES) and if she ran a Physical Fitness Test (PFT) during the seminar. [REDACTED] stated she recently attended the LLES ran by [REDACTED] and she did not complete the PFT because she was on light duty. [REDACTED] stated because she was on light duty [REDACTED] picked her and another light duty Marine to hold the NAVMC 11622 forms and annotate Marines scores after events were completed. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] gave her the NAVMC 11622 for the inventory PFT and she made all entries on the form herself. Specifically when one event ended, all the Marines would get in a line and give scores one at a time. Once the PFT was completed and all applicable entries made on the form, she gave the NAMVC 11622 from back to [REDACTED] stated she did not know who the other Marine was, but he was another LCpl in LLES with her and he maintained possession of the other NAVMC 11622. [REDACTED] asked if [REDACTED] offered pull-ups, pushups, and [REDACTED] stated yes. [REDACTED] asked if [REDACTED] saw anyone specifically not conduct an event and try to get a score annotated, she stated no and the only case was one Marine only did not give scores for the crunches or run events.

Subj: SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Ref: (a) JAGMAN Section 0203

1. This is a summary of interview of [REDACTED] conducted by [REDACTED] on Tuesday, 14 June 2022.
2. [REDACTED] spoke with [REDACTED] on the phone about [REDACTED] partial Physical Fitness Test (PFT) waiver. Specifically, how [REDACTED] had a partial PFT waiver without a light duty chit. [REDACTED] is an Independent Duty Corpsman, had seen [REDACTED] in the past. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was a unique case and that he referred [REDACTED] to other providers in the past. He then stated on 9 June 2022, while he was at clinical, he received a call from another Corpsman (not mentioned) asking about a partial PFT waiver for [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated he knew about [REDACTED] conditions, specifically he could do the pull-ups or pushup, and crunch or plank portions of the PFT but not the run. [REDACTED] signed the partial PFT waiver for [REDACTED]. The phone conversation ended there.
3. A little after, [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] after he did more research. [REDACTED] stated on 27 May 2022 he saw [REDACTED] and offered him Light Duty for his conditions. However, [REDACTED] denied Light Duty. [REDACTED] then stated when patients deny Light Duty he would info the patients if they change their mind after a week or so to come back for the Light Duty chit.
